WIRNERS AT LONG PRICES

Alexander Island Talent Had Fair Returns for Their Investments.

JENNIE T. PROVED A SURPRISE

The Sharon Stable's Filly Showes, Her Heels to the Balance of the Lot Much to the Astonishment of Many-Jockey Gri en Had a Good Day at St Asaph-The Details.

There was a good attendance yesterday at the Alexander Island course and the eight bookmakers had plenty of business to handle. The nient were in fairly good form, as three favorites wen, the other events going to outsiders. The track was fair, but the time made only ordinary. Mike Daly had not been havsemer and Jir McLaughlin.

Jack Wynne showed he was an extra good colt by picking up weight and defeating a fair field. The last time out Jennie T. was heavily played to win but failed. Vesterday, at 5 to 1, she simply gailoped away from the other cuttle opposed to her. Summaries: How the Borses Ran.
